

from Kentucky went a few weeks into a store of a fashionable milliner in Cincinnati. "Have you plenty of all kinds?" asked he. "What do you ask a cord?" said the chap. "A cord!" interrogated Madam W. "Yes; I want about a cord. Up your diggings the petticoats and gowns have got out. I see you address corded skirts, and I thought, if my hand was in, I'd take what I had corded up." The milliner faints.

Mr. Polk's Town.—The Savannah Georgian of Monday states the reception of Mr. Polk, family, and friends that town, with all civil and military honors. On Sunday they attended divine service at the independent Presbyterian Church—in the afternoon at Christ Church. On Monday morning, escorted by Republican Blues, Capt. Anderson, they were to be conveyed to the depot of the Central railroad, and provided in the cars to Macon. Their presence in Savannah had created a long sensation.

WEDNESDAY.

MARRIED.—On Thursday, the 15th inst., a marriage was solemnized by the Rev. Geo. Light, Dr. LLOYD SELBY, Editor of the Jacksonian, to Miss CATHERINE CUNNINGHAM, formerly of Pennsylvania.

OBITUARY.

DIED.—At the residence of his father, in this County, on Saturday the 24th inst., WILLIAM LITTLETON, second Son of W. B. JOHNSON, Esq., aged two years and six months.

Thou shinest in heaven now—
Gem in the glorious corner,
That decks the Saviour's brow."

TO THE PUBLIC.

Be cautious of WM. H. CAIN, constable; he is a man who will meddle himself with others. He has told willful and notorious lies on me, and will, no doubt, do the same on others—such a man, I fear, will do worse than he has opportunity.

I am compelled in justice to myself to warn the public and all good citizens against such a liar.

Watches! Watches!!

FOR years the strife has been not who could make the best watch, but who could make the cheapest, or rather the lowest priced article, which is not always the cheapest, and consequently the great falling off in the quality of watches.

We import our watches direct from England, France, and Germany, and have been 12 months in preparing our present stock. Our aim has been to have a splendid assortment of Fine Watches—as fine as Europe can produce. This, in addition to a full assortment of the low and medium qualities, we are now prepared to show the public, all of which will be sold at a small advance on the importing cost.

F. H. CLARK & Co.,
January 13. No. 37 Front Row,
LARGE ADDITIONS, and more extensive than ever.

HAVING received our semi-annual supply, we commence the New Year with an assortment that is not surpassed if equalled in the United States.

We have "Twelve Thousand Dollars" in the article of Watches alone, and can therefore supply our friends and the public with any style, and at almost any price. We have

G. 11 Patent Levers from $35 to $250; Silver do. " 18 " 55; with a general assortment of Lepine and Vertical Watches.

The other branches of our stock will be found as extensive and complete as our Watches—such as CHAINS, SEALS, KEYS, (Jewelry in all its variety,) including many valuable PHONOONS and some full sets, SPECTACLES, SILVER-WARE, GOLD FINE, SILVER-PLATED GOODS, CLOCKS, LAMPS & GIRANDOLLES, CUTLERY, GUNS, PISTOLS, including the genuine DERRINGER'S, CASES, TEA TRAYS, with a general assortment of FANCY GOODS, in which will be found many choice articles for the Ladies.

NOTICE. We aim to furnish those who deal in Memphis, with a home market and a home guarantee for Goods in our line, and invite the public to call and examine for themselves. Our Stock is laid in with Cash; our European Goods we import ourselves; we get our Domestic Articles direct from the makers, and being satisfied with a small profit, we offer great inducements to our friends and the public. We are also prepared to do all kinds of work in our line, in the best manner and with dispatch, our motto—
